Michigan nursing homes reportedly failed to file or even decline to file patient death reports during the COVID-19 pandemic, findings released on Friday, according to documents obtained by The Detroit News and made public for the first time.

Source: A long page of complaints about 99 nursing homes submitted to state regulators in April and May 2020 revealed how the facilities struggled to account for potentially missing names and counts since June.

Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel signed a letter to the U.S. House Select Committee on the Investigation of the January 6th Attack on the U.S. Capitol. The letter expresses concern about the lack of accountability for those responsible for the January 6th attack on the U.S. Capitol and urges the committee to continue its investigation.
